FWPA was formed in September 2007 as the successor body to the Forest and Wood Products Research and Development Corporation.

FWPA is developing its Strategic Plan and seeks and invites levy payer and stakeholder input into the future directions and priorities of the company.

Consultation meetings are being held around Australia during February and March 2008.

Meetings have been planned for up to three hours duration. They will include an introduction to FWPA and ample opportunity for discussion and input on the draft plan and identification of priority issues.
